Authorised Equipment

- Pens, pencils, erasers and rulers.

All equipment other than listed in the exam rubric should be handed to the invigilator. If you are found with any other materials during the period of the examination, it will be assumed that they are being used to gain unfair advantage. Mobile phones must be switched off and placed at the back of the room.

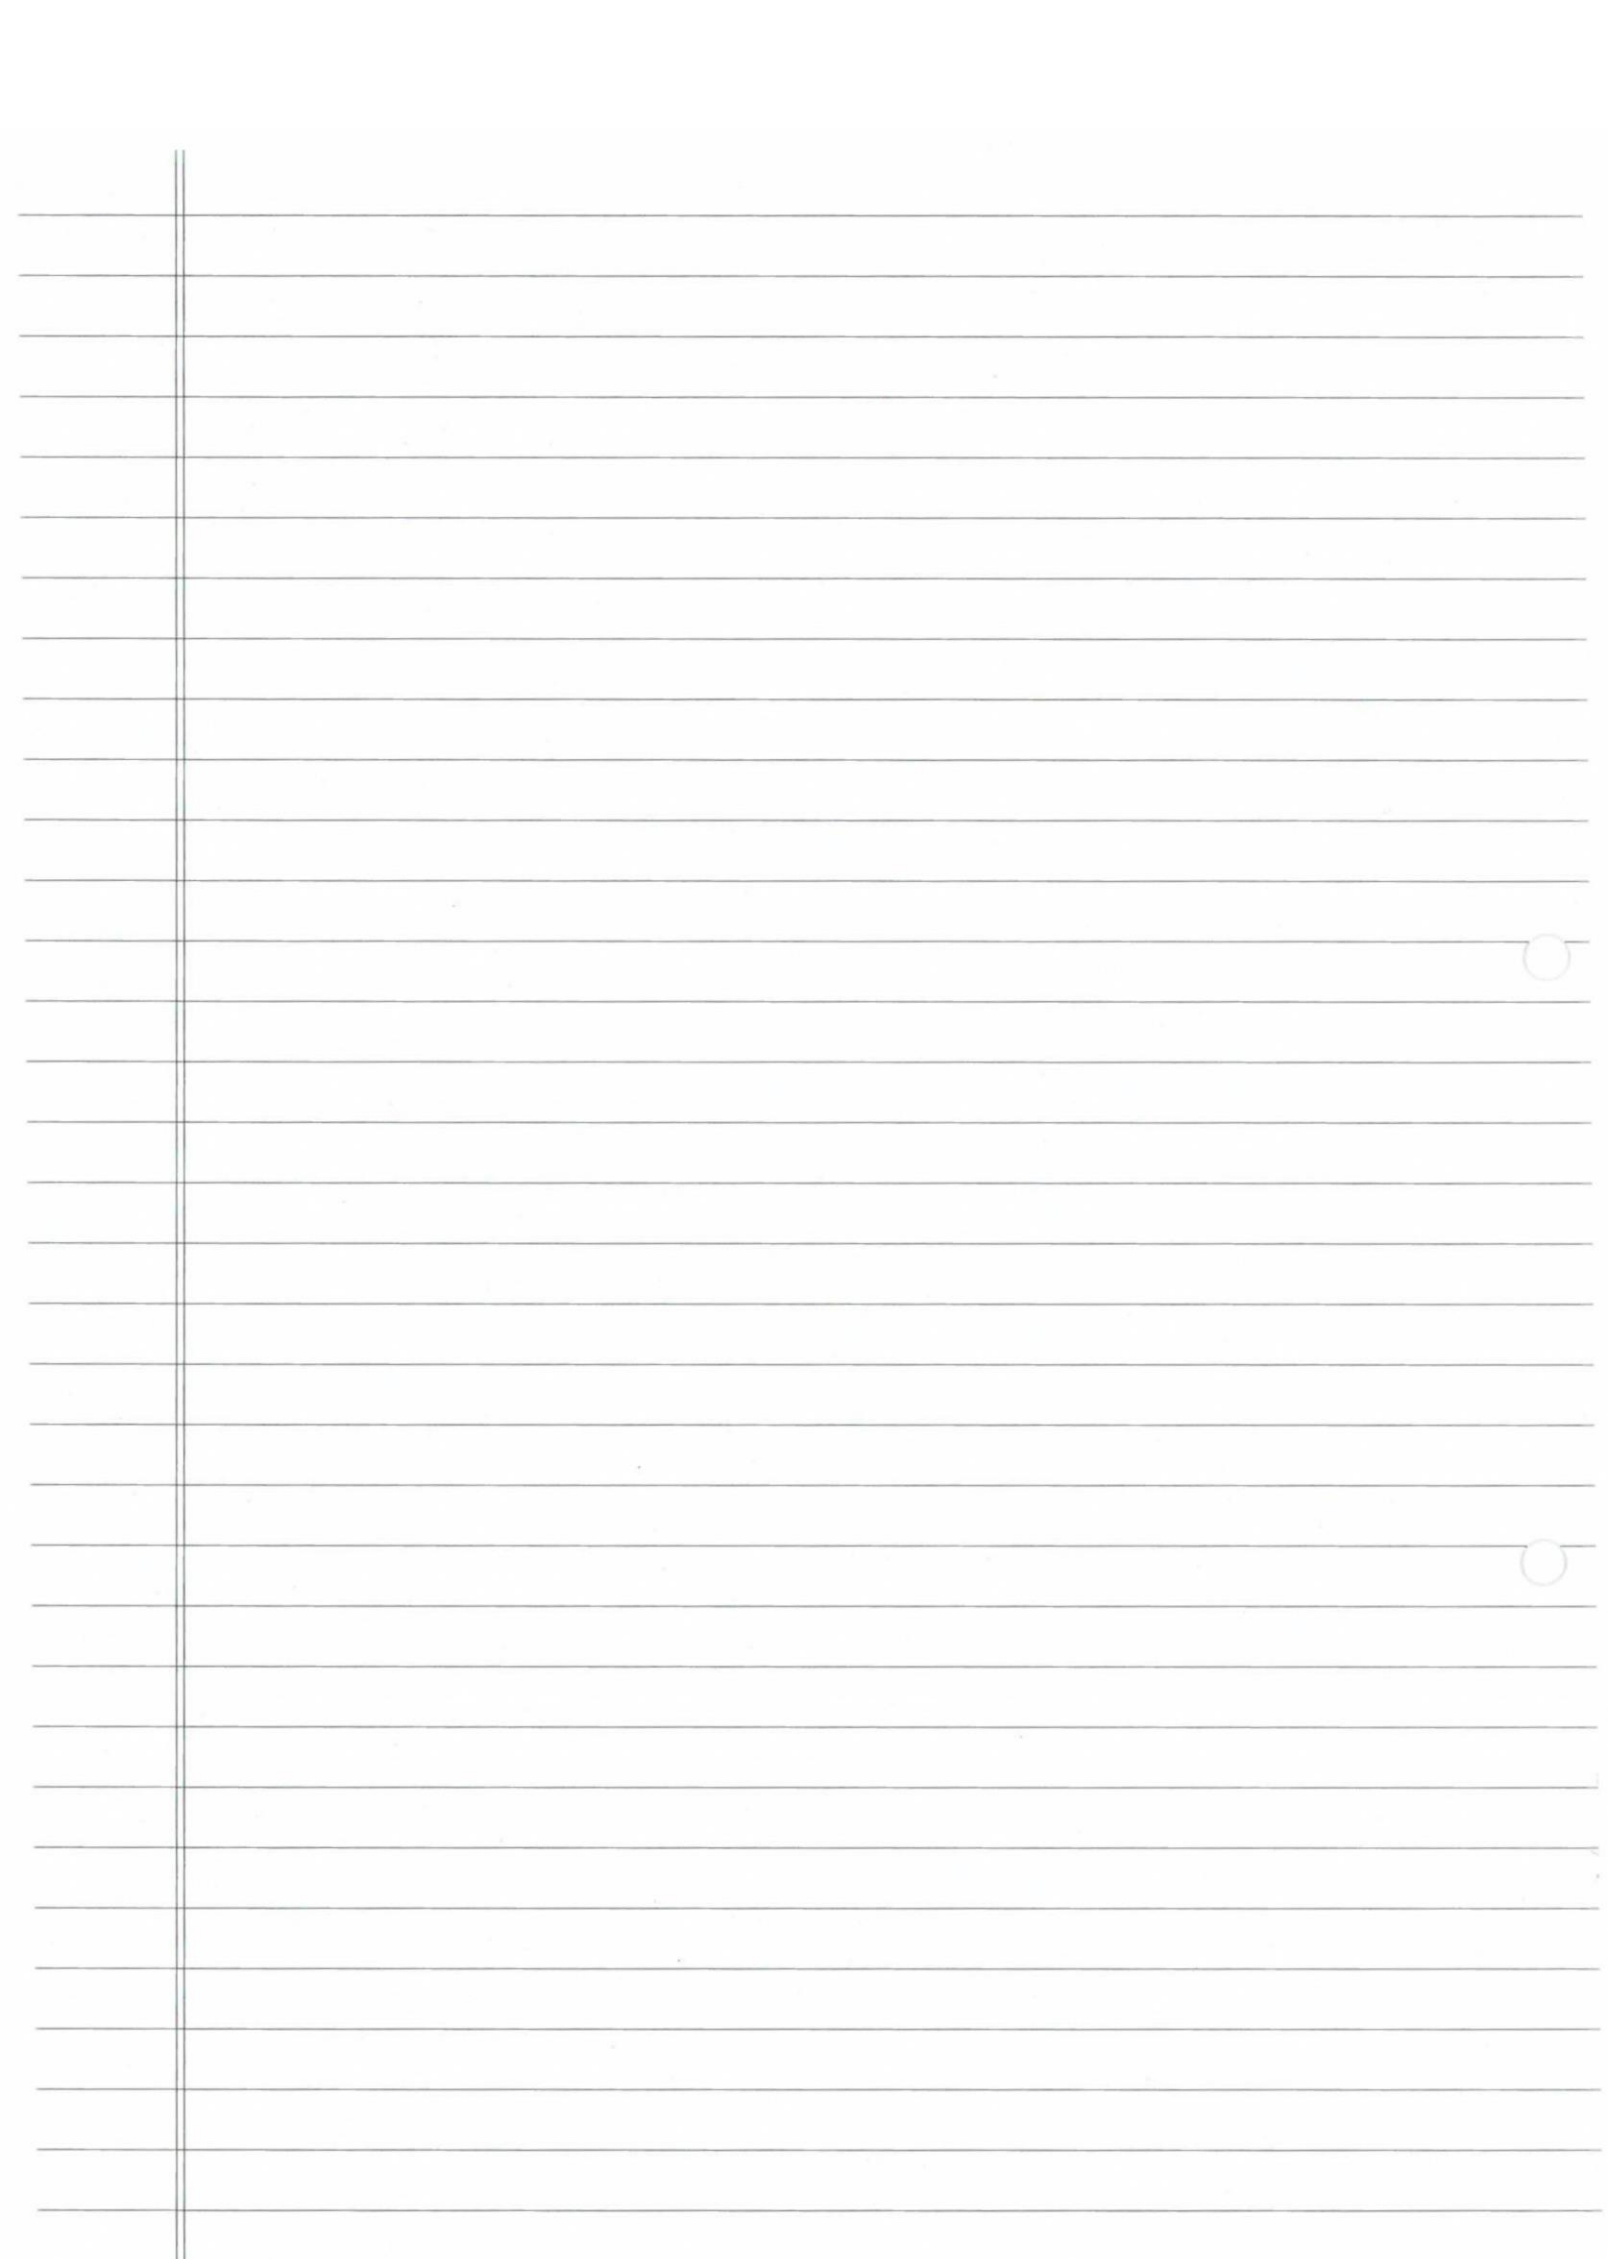

Instructions to Candidates

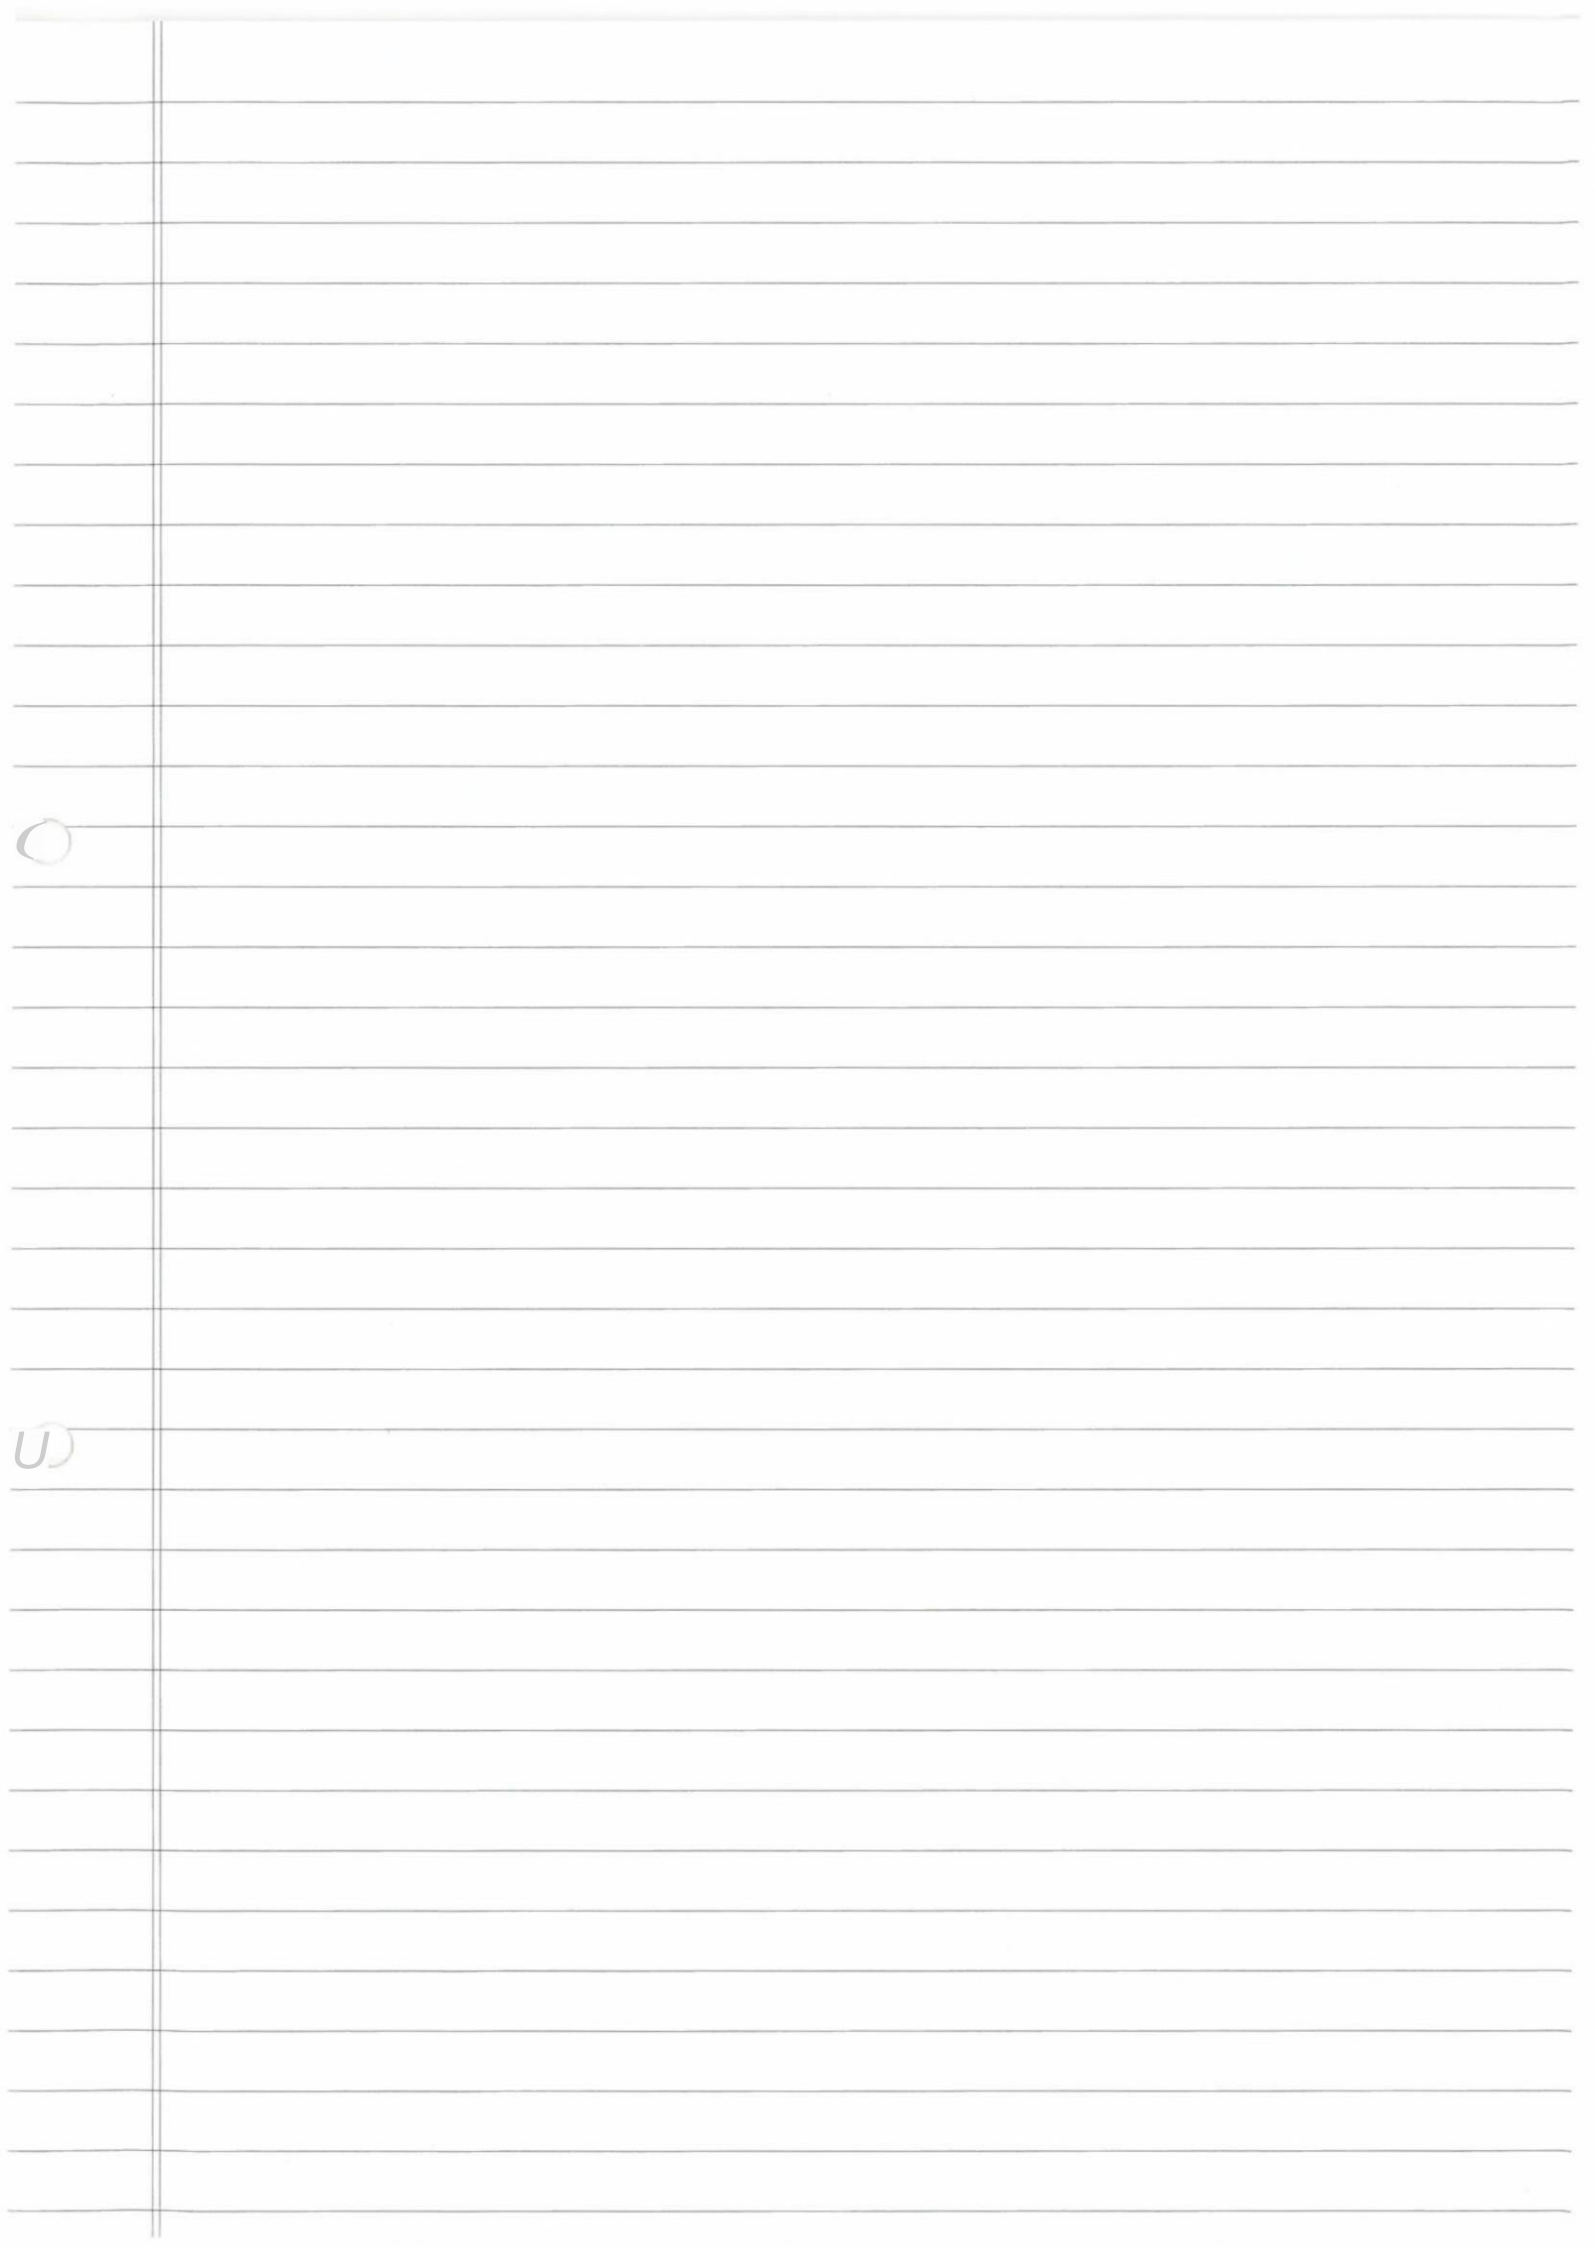

- Ensure that you have entered your details correctly at the top of the page and have entered the question numbers for the questions that you have attempted in the table below.
- Write all your answers in black or blue ink.
- Do not use correction fluid on this answer booklet. If you make a mistake, you must cross through it and clearly make the correction.
- If you need continuation sheets, including graph paper, or wish to attract the invigilator's attention for any other reason, raise your hand.
- You must enter your NCC Education Candidate ID Number and page number on each continuation sheet used.
- Fasten continuation sheets to the answer booklets using the tags provided.
- Before the examination starts, you will be given 10 minutes to read through paper. You must not write during this period. You may start writing when the invigilator tells you that the examination has started.
- You will be told when there are 30 minutes and 5 minutes of the examination remaining.
- You will not be allowed to leave the examination in the first 40 minutes or the last 30 minutes.
- At the end of the examination, remain seated, put down your pen and do not communicate with any other candidate until you are told to leave.
- If you write notes on this answer booklet, make sure these are crossed through to indicate they are not answers.
- Candidates attempting to communicate or gain an unfair advantage in any way will be disqualified from this examination and may be excluded from qualifications by NCC Education.
